April 2019

Dear Friends in Christ,

About a month ago, Becky and I attended the funeral of a good friend. Prior to the service, as we were sitting in the pew, I thought to myself, “I am tired of dealing with death.” At that point, it was not as if I had been inundated with funerals or having to visit many people who were on their deathbeds. It just seemed, however, like death was everywhere.

We constantly see death and destruction in the news. From murders and suicides to devastation in storms or accidents, we are confronted with reports of deaths—some of individuals, some of groups of people—pretty much on a daily basis. We also find little deaths, figuratively speaking, in the shows of malice or resentment that people exhibit toward others. It is found in any kind of loss that we might experience. They are all forms of a death.

This month, as the Lenten season draws to a close, we are confronted with death even in our worship as we focus on the dying and the death of Jesus. What we have before us is the devastation that sin brings into the world as the only remedy for sin is a sacrifice...the sacrificial death of Jesus, the perfect, spotless Lamb of God.

Before month's end, however, we get the wonderful celebration of life everlasting as we observe Easter and the Sundays of the Easter season. Death may be all around us, it may touch our lives on a regular basis, but Jesus brings forth life! From the creative Word of Genesis to the proclamation of absolution to the hope of bodily resurrection, we are reminded over and over again that Jesus defeated death and brought forth life.

In those times when death seems to dominate in our lives and in our world, let us recall: He is risen! He is risen, indeed!

In Christ,

Pastor Ogilvie

Quarterly Council and Voters' Meetings in April

As per our congregational bylaws, we will be having the quarterly Church Council and Voters' meetings this month. The Church Council meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 2, at 6:00 p.m. All council members (elected officers and board chairs) are asked to be at this meeting, and have reports turned in prior to the meeting.

The Voters' meeting will be held on April 28, at 10:15 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. All voting members—communicant members of 18 years of age and older—are strongly encouraged to be at this meeting. There will be no Sunday School or adult Bible study that morning.

Monthly Congregational Challenge

In the coming months, in each Clarion I will be issuing a challenge to the congregation as a way to encourage growth and focus in certain aspects of our life together. As Lutherans, we tend to be creatures of habit. We find a pattern or a place, and we stick with it. This beginning challenge should be a relatively easy one.

For the month of April, I am challenging the members of our congregation in regards to where you sit for our services. You are challenged to find a different place in which to sit so you will be around different people for the services you attend. When people sit in the same place each week, they are typically around the same people. That means when it is time to greet one another, you are most likely greeting the same people every week—and many of them might be related to you. By finding a different place to sit each week, you will possibly get a different perspective on the service, and you will be near people you do not always sit near. If you regularly sit in the back, sit in the middle and the front. If you are a pulpit side person, sit on the lectern side. Pretty simple.

If you want to really push yourself, during the fellowship time following the service, find one or two people each week that you do not normally talk to and greet them and strike up a conversation. If you do not normally go down to the Fellowship Hall after the service for refreshments and fellowship, do so.

The purpose of this is to build and expand relationships within our congregation.

Holy Week at St. Paul

Holy Week is a time of special devotion and reflection on the saving work of our Savior Jesus Christ. The week will begin with our Palm Sunday observance on April 14. Our journey will continue with the commemoration of our Lord's institution of the Holy Supper on Maundy Thursday, April 18. On Good Friday, April 19, St. Paul will again be hosting the Williamsburg Circuit Tre Ore Service, a three-hour service in 20-minute segments that focuses on the words Jesus spoke from the cross. You can come for all or part of that service. Good Friday will conclude with our congregational service that evening. We will gather for an Easter Vigil on Easter Saturday, April 20. On Easter Sunday, we will again have two opportunities for worship—the Sunrise Service and the Festival Service. The two services on Easter morning will be different, so come to both!

The full schedule for Holy Week is:

Palm Sunday, April 14	9:00 a.m.
Maundy Thursday, April 18	6:30 p.m.
Good Friday Tre Ore, April 19	12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m.
Good Friday, April 19	6:30 p.m.
Easter Vigil, April 20	5:30 p.m.
Easter Sunrise, April 21	6:00 a.m.
Easter Festival, April 21	9:00 a.m.

Confirmation Sunday Is Quickly Approaching

This year, our congregation will have six young members stand before the congregation and publicly affirm what their Lord has done for them in their baptism, confirming what parents and sponsors spoke on their behalf, and making a public confession of their faith. This is a huge step in the lives of these young people, and a source of great joy for our congregation as our body grows stronger.

This year, Katharyn Cox, Zachary Glandorf, Landon Jepson, Braden Mumm, Frannie Ogilvie, and Benjamin Roberts will go through the Rite of Confirmation on Sunday, May 5th, during our regular worship service. The Wednesday prior, May 1st, we will have the public questioning of our confirmands. This will take place in the Sanctuary at 6:30 p.m., and all congregation members are invited to be present and to hear the confirmands give answer to what they have learned from God's Word and what they believe to be true in terms of their faith.

Together in the Word.

Being in God's Word daily is truly a blessing. The readings that will be posted for the next several months are taken from the daily lectionary which is found on pages 299-304 in Lutheran Service Book. Blessings on your reading and meditation.

A Tale Of Two Synods by Mark E. Braun

A defining moment in American Lutheranism occurred when the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod and the Lutheran Church--Missouri Synod split apart in 1961. So what went wrong between these two church bodies? This book is the culmination of Dr. Mark Braun's exhaustive research on the history and controversy between the WELS and the LCMS before and after the split. With interviews and surveys throughout, this thorough and thoughtful text will give you a clearer understanding of these two synods.

Chicken Soup for the Christian Soul by Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, Patty Aubrey & Nancy Mitchell

These stories will deepen your Christian faith by helping you practice Christian values in your daily life: at home, at work and in the community. This collection will open your heart to the experience and expression of more love in your life and will remind you that you are never alone or without hope, no matter how challenging and painful your circumstances may be.

Forgiven by Terri Roberts with Jeanette Windle

Mother of Amish Schoolhouse Shooter Gives Message of Hope and Healing Who would have believed all the beauty God would create over the nine years since that awful day.

On October 2, 2006, a gunman entered an Amish one-room schoolhouse, shooting ten girls, killing five, then finally taking his own life. This is his mother's story. Not only did she lose her precious son through suicide, but she also lost her understanding of him as an honorable man. Her community and the world experienced trauma that no family or community should ever have to face. But this is, surprisingly, a story of hope and joy--of God revealing his grace in unexpected places. Today Terri lives in harmony with the Amish and has built lasting relationships that go beyond what anyone could have thought possible. From the grace that the Amish showed Terri's family from day one, to the visits and ongoing care Terri has given to the victims and their families, no one could have foreseen the love and community that have been forged from the fires of tragedy. Let Terri's story inspire and encourage you as you discover the wonder of forgiveness and the power of God to bring beauty from ashes.

How to Raise Totally Awesome Kids by Dr. Chuck & Jenni Borsellino

Suddenly one day you are a parent. And if your parents weren't a good example, it's hard to know what to do. When parents trade spiritual convictions for those of secular culture -- with its misguided principles and mistaken priorities -- our families, faith, and foundations are in trouble. Happiness has become the hallmark of successful parenthood in today's high-tech, low-touch world where faithfulness is for the foolish and parenthood is provisional. But now, Chuck and Jenni Borsellino offer a biblical, up-to-date, realistic guide for raising today's children, written in an entertainingly conversational style and not a cookie-cutter, warmed-over advice format. Learn how to make the child-rearing years rewarding for both parents and children. Parenting is both exhilarating and exhausting...offering no reprieve and no recess. Moms are so emotionally drained they're giving "themselves" a timeout. Dads are so frustrated even golf seems like fun. But don't panic--"there is hope." Chuck and Jenni invite you to pull up a chair with them in a quiet cafe, where the coffee's hot and the music's soft. They've been here a thousand times with parents just like you. Parents with their kids on their minds and their hearts on their sleeves...eager to discover the practice and the payoff of... "Principle-Centered Parenting." With wit and wisdom, Chuck and Jenni share 10 essential principles that will help you when your patience is failing and your blood pressure is rising. Whether you're a mom or dad in a traditional family, a stepfamily, or a single-parent family...you're just 10 steps away from discovering how good parents become great parents, average kids become awesome kids, and kids of comfort become kids of character. "Join them and see."

Moonlight on the Millpond by Lori Wick

This first book in the "Tucker Mills Trilogy" from beloved author Lori Wick follows Jace Randall as he leaves his childhood home to help his Uncle Woody Randall run the saw mill in Token Creek. Jace diligently focuses on work until he meets the visiting niece of local storekeepers. Jace pursues her until she finally agrees to attend a picnic with him and take a chance. But before the relationship has a strong foundation, the couple separates because of gossip fueled by Jace's sister. Later, when she admits her wrongdoing and shares her testimony of a new faith, the couple must decide whether to try again. Will the sister's example of faith and transformation be enough to restore broken dreams?

Summer Dream by Martha Roger

The first book in the Seasons of the Heart series is set in Connecticut in 1888, the year of what historians call "The White Hurricane." The story reveals the power of God's love to change lives and heal hearts. Summer Dream tells of a young couple's love for each other and the obstacles that stand in their path of happiness. Until Nathan Reed resolves his anger with God and his family, he has no hopes of courting Rachel Winston, the minister's daughter. As the daughter of a small-town minister in Connecticut, Rachel Winston believes the only way she'll ever have a husband is to visit her aunt in Boston for the social season until Nathan Reed arrives in town. Although attracted to Rachel, Nathan avoids her because he has no desire to become involved with a Christian after experiences with his own family. When a devastating blizzard paralyzes New England, Nathan is caught in it and lies near death in the Winston home. Through the ministrations and tender care of Rachel and her mother, Nathan learns a lesson in love and forgiveness that leads him back to his home in the South. Before he can declare his love for Rachel, he must make amends with his own family. Will he return to Connecticut before Rachel leaves her home to head west as a missionary in Oklahoma Territory?

Unlocked by Karen Kingsbury

Before You Take a Stand ... You Got to Take a Chance. Holden Harris is an eighteen-year-old locked in a prison of autism. Despite his quiet ways and quirky behaviors, Holden is very happy and socially normal—on the inside, in a private world all his own. In reality, he is bullied at school by kids who only see that he is very different. Ella Reynolds is part of the "in" crowd. A cheerleader and star of the high school drama production, her life seems perfect. When she catches

Holden listening to her rehearse for the school play, she is drawn to him ... the way he is drawn to the music. Then, Ella makes a dramatic discovery—she and Holden were best friends as children. Frustrated by the way Holden is bullied, and horrified at the indifference of her peers, Ella decides to take a stand against the most privileged and popular kids at school. Including her boyfriend, Jake. Ella believes miracles can happen in the unlikeliest places, and that just maybe an entire community might celebrate from the sidelines. But will Holden’s praying mother and the efforts of Ella and a cast of theater kids be enough to unlock the prison that contains Holden? This time, friendship, faith, and the power of a song must be strong enough to open the doors to the miracle Holden needs.

God’s Gift of Family by Brenda Jank , Illustrated by Penny Weber

Every family is different. Some families are formed through birth, others through adoption, some through marriage, and still others through fostering or inter-generational means. Not every family is created in the same way, but every family is created by God.

God's Gift of Family is especially for blended families, a book that speaks to families who have welcomed children home through any means, and celebrates the making of a family - the miracle, joy, and love - from a distinctly faith-based vantage point.

Designed for all families, God's Gift of Family celebrates the making of a family - the miracle, the joy, and the love from a distinctly faith-based vantage point.

Prayer Learning How to Talk to God by Jeanette L Groth, Illustrated by Izabela Ciesinska

Nurture the habit of regular, confident conversation with God in your children, helping your family grow in faith together!

God invites His children to talk to Him about anything, anywhere, anytime. This is what “pray without ceasing” is all about! God is a loving Father, who promises to listen and to answer our prayers in ways

He knows are best for us.

See MY Savior’s Hands by William Chancellor Weedon, illustrated by Martin Hargreaves

Imagine Jesus as a boy, His hands holding the scrolls of Scripture in the temple. As a teacher, His hands blessing the loaves and fish that would feed thousands. As our Lord, His hands touching the leper to heal him. As our Savior, His hands nailed to the cross.

These traditional illustrations and simple, eloquent words tell the story of Jesus’ life, death, resurrection, and love for us by looking at His hands.
