The Sacrament of Holy Communion is celebrated in our worship services this weekend. It is our practice to serve Holy Communion to those who have been instructed in the Christian faith, who are able and willing to “examine themselves,” and who share a common faith and confession. As a congregation of the LC-MS, we welcome to the Lord’s Table all who are in fellowship with our church body. If you are visiting and have questions about your participation in the Sacrament, please speak with the Elder or Pastor before the service. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request prior to worship. Please speak with the Elder or Pastor if you desire a gluten-free wafer.

LSTO update: Students in our Lutheran elementary schools need your help! The Iowa Lutheran School Tuition Organization is at 67% of its $806,000 goal as of Nov. 1. You have until Dec. 31 to mail your gift, but please call ahead as credits can go quickly the closer we get to the end of the year. The need is becoming greater – Giving is not limited to Lutherans, church members, etc. Remember the financial benefit to a contributor is a 65% tax credit on Iowa income taxes (which can be carried over for five years). Please check with your tax preparer for federal guidelines as the new Federal tax laws take effect. For more information about ILSTO go online to www.iowalutheransto.org or call Dewey Torkelson at 712-260-2991.

Calling all Singers!! The community choir will once again combine with the high school choirs in our annual “Christmas in Williamsburg” performance on Sunday, December 9th. Everyone who enjoys singing is welcome. Rehearsals will be each Sunday starting November 18th from 2 to 4 p.m at the St. Paul’s United Methodist church. Music will be provided. Contact Steve Manning at the High School for any other information.

Congratulations and blessings to Cheryl and Eli Hoskey on the birth of their son Melvin, Aug 19, 2018. Darlene Read is the great grandmother.

Our prayers and sympathy to the family of Richard Hagen who passed away Oct 28. Richard is the brother of Doris Heitman and uncle to Kurt Heitman and Loring(Theresa) Heitman. His funeral was on October 31 at St. John’s Homestead.

St. Paul’s Methodist Church is hosting a community Thanksgiving on Saturday, November 17th. Our congregation has participated in several ways in the past and we would like to participate again this year. They are looking for musical performers, servers, hosts, food preparers, food donations, and people to deliver meals. Please sign up on the bulletin board at the west entrance. If you know of shut-ins who would like an invitation, please provide their name to Helen as soon as possible. There is home delivery available.

St. Paul Lutheran Church will host a blood drive Monday, November 12th with the Mississippi Valley Regional blood Center from 3:00-6:30pm., In St. Paul Fellowship Hall. Blood pressure medications are acceptable if blood pressure is controlled. ID is required (donor card, driver’s license or social security card). Eat a nutritious meal and drink lots of water during the 4 hours before donation. Ages 17 and over can donate blood. Please sign up on the Scheduling form on the west entrance bulletin board. Walk-Ins are welcome.

Attention all military servicemen and women: In honor of Veterans Day, you are invited to attend the following activities on Monday, November 12, 2018:

Old Testament Reading 1 Kings 17:8–16

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to [Elijah], ⁹“Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you.” ¹⁰So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, “Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.” ¹¹And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, “Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand.” ¹²And she said, “As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. And now I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die.” ¹³And Elijah said to her, “Do not fear; go and do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make something for yourself and your son. ¹⁴For thus says the LORD the God of Israel, ‘The jar of flour shall not be spent, and the jug of oil shall not be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth.’” ¹⁵And she went and did as Elijah said. And she and he and her household ate for many days. ¹⁶The jar of flour was not spent, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah.

Epistle Hebrews 9:24–28

²⁴For Christ has entered, not into holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true things, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. ²⁵Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own, ²⁶for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, ²⁸so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Mark 12:38–44

³⁸ In his teaching [Jesus] said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes and like greetings in the marketplaces

³⁹and have the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, ⁴⁰who devour widows’ houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

⁴¹And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums.

⁴²And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. ⁴³And he called his disciples to him and said to them, “Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. ⁴⁴For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

Bible Study Note. This week, we conclude the “Every One His Witness” material during the Sunday morning Bible study. We will be discussing ways that you can invite people to join you for services in God’s house and how you can go about encouraging the faith development in the people you know. Join us in the Fellowship Hall for this engaging study from 10:15-11:15.

Thanksgiving Worship. God is the source of all blessings. Thus, it is proper to gather in His house to offer up our thanks, but also to receive His grace and mercy as we celebrate our Thanksgiving holiday. Services will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 21, and at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 22. We look forward to seeing you at one of these services!

Shelter House and I (Frannie Ogilvie) would like to extend a heartfelt “Thank You” to those who donated money to be used to purchase supplies for the Shelter House. We were able to raise $360 which was used to purchase: 4 pillows, 4 plush blankets, 4 thermal blankets, 4 alarm clocks, 4 pairs of woman’s work shoes, 4 pair of men’s work shoes, and 20 male t-shirts. Blessings to each and every one of you! In Christ, Frannie Ogilvie

Altar Flowers needed for December 8/9, 29/30.

Adult Choir will be meeting on November 18 at 8:30am, just before the worship service. Come and join them.

LIS SCRIP - The last day to order SCRIP to have cards arrive before Thanksgiving is November 12th. Cards ordered after this point may not arrive before Thanksgiving Break!

The Evangelism Committee is asking for donations of coffee, napkins, and Styrofoam cups, or monetary donations for these items which are used in the fellowship Hall after our worship services.

Congratulations and Best Wishes to Kelsi(Gensley) and Colin Cox on their wedding November 4 here at St. Paul.
