Passports are required and we must have them by December 1, 2018 in order to process visa's required to get into Vietnam. Willis has been able to cut the cost to approximately $2000.00 per person

LSTO update: Students in our Lutheran elementary schools need your help! The Iowa Lutheran School Tuition Organization is at 67% of its $806,000 goal as of Nov. 1. You have until Dec. 31 to mail your gift, but please call ahead as credits can go quickly the closer we get to the end of the year. The need is becoming greater. Giving is not limited to Lutherans, church members, etc. Remember the financial benefit to a contributor is a 65% tax credit on Iowa income taxes (which can be carried over for five years). Please check with your tax preparer for federal guidelines as the new Federal tax laws take effect. For more information about ILSTO go online to www.iowalutheransto.org or call Dewey Torkelson at 712-260-2991.

Old Testament Lesson Daniel 12:1–3

¹“At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone whose name shall be found written in the book. ²And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky above; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.

Epistle Hebrews 10:11–25

¹¹ Every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

¹²But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. ¹⁴For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying,

¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord:

I will put my laws on their hearts,
and write them on their minds,”

¹⁷then he adds,

“I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

¹⁸Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

¹⁹Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

Holy Gospel

Mark 13:1–13

¹ As [Jesus] came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!”

² And Jesus said to him, “Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down.”

³ And as he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴“Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are about to be accomplished?” ⁵ And Jesus began to say to them, “See that no one leads you astray. ⁶ Many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. ⁷ And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. This must take place, but the end is not yet.

⁸ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. These are but the beginning of the birth pains.

⁹ “But be on your guard. For they will deliver you over to councils, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them. ¹⁰ And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. ¹¹ And when they bring you to trial and deliver you over, do not be anxious beforehand what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. ¹² And brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death. ¹³ And you will be hated by all for my name’s sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Bible Study Note. Picking up on the Thanksgiving theme of the month of November, the Sunday morning Bible study will spend two weeks studying psalms of thanksgiving. Join us this week for a study of Psalm 95. We will discuss the generosity of God as well as His gracious compassion. We meet in the Fellowship Hall from 10:15-11:15 a.m.

Give Thanks to the Lord, for He Is Good! Our national Thanksgiving holiday is this Thursday. Recognizing that God is the source of all blessings, we will gather for a time of worship to offer up our thanks and praise, as well as to continue to receive His gifts. Services will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 21, and at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 22. We look forward to seeing you at one of these services!

Clarion Deadline. If you have items to include in the December Clarion (our church newsletter), please have them in to the office by noon on Tuesday, November 20. Also, if you or a family member have had a change of address, please let the church office know so we can keep in touch with everyone via the Clarion.

Advent Is Coming! The First Sunday in Advent is December 2. Midweek Advent services will start the following Wednesday, December 5. The midweek services will start at 6:30 p.m. Come beforehand for a light meal and fellowship. The meal will be served beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Altar Flowers needed for December 8/9, 29/30.

The Evangelism Committee is asking for donations of coffee, napkins, and Styrofoam cups, or monetary donations for these items which are used in the fellowship Hall after our worship services.
