Introit from Psalm 55

□ Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you;

☩ he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

□ My heart is in anguish within me;

☩ the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

□ But I call to God,

☩ and the LORD will save me.

□ Evening and morning and at noon I utter my complaint and moan,

☩ and he hears my voice.

□ He redeems my soul in safety from the battle that I wage,

☩ for many are arrayed against me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

□ Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you;

☩ he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

Salutation and Collect of the Day LSB 205

First Reading Acts 16:9–15

<sup>9</sup> A vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia was standing there, urging him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”

<sup>10</sup> And when Paul had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go on into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

<sup>11</sup> So, setting sail from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis, <sup>12</sup> and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days. <sup>13</sup> And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together.

<sup>14</sup> One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. <sup>15</sup>And after she was baptized, and her household as well, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay.” And she prevailed upon us.

Epistle

Revelation 21:9–14, 21–27

<sup>9</sup>Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues and spoke to me, saying, “Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb.” <sup>10</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup>having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup>It had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were inscribed— <sup>13</sup>on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. <sup>14</sup>And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>21</sup>And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each of the gates made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

<sup>22</sup>And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. <sup>23</sup>And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb. <sup>24</sup>By its light will the nations walk, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it, <sup>25</sup>and its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there. <sup>26</sup>They will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. <sup>27</sup>But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s book of life.

Holy Gospel

John 16:23–33

<sup>23</sup>[Jesus said] “In that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. <sup>24</sup>Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

<sup>25</sup>“I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup>In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; <sup>27</sup>for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. <sup>28</sup>I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup>His disciples said, “Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! <sup>30</sup>Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God.” <sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? <sup>32</sup>Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup>I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world.”

Congratulations, Graduates! On this Baccalaureate Sunday, we pray God's blessings upon Cedric Kuesel, Greta Simmons, and Alaina Stoltenberg, as well as Taylor Comstock, Michael Dodsworth Jr., and A.J. Goodell. We rejoice over the accomplishments you have achieved thus far and pray God's guidance upon all your future plans. We encourage you to stay close to Him as you head to new ventures.

Thank you to our guest musicians, UNITuba, who are providing music for our Sunday service this week. UNITuba is a tuba and euphonium ensemble from the University of Northern Iowa. They are attending a conference in Iowa City this week. We truly appreciate their presence and offerings amongst us!

Bible Study Note. Shakespeare pondered, “What’s in a name?” When it comes to the name of God, a great deal is contained in, reflected by, and entailed in His holy name. As we pray that God’s name is kept holy among us, we examine how we carry His name with us. That will be the topic of our Sunday morning Bible study this week, continuing with our study, “Teach Us to Pray.” Come and engage in the discussion about what it means to call upon the name of God in prayer. Join us in the Chamber Room from 10:15-11:15. All are welcomed and encouraged to attend!

LIS Graduation. The 8th grade graduation for Lutheran Interparish School is on Wednesday, May 29. It will be held in the school gym at 7:00 p.m. All are invited!

Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca is still looking to hire both male and female summer camp counselors. Camp counselors serve as Christian role models and teachers, activity leaders, and mentors for our campers. Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca is interested in either summer-long staff (June 1-Aug 3) and/or staff for just July -August 3. For more information, email director@iodiseca.org or call 319-848-4187. You can also get started on applying by submitting a summer service profile at www.nloma.org, but be sure to put Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca down as your 1st Camp Preference!

Help the LCMS Spread “Joy to the World” In conjunction with this summer’s LCMS synodical convention, a National Offering is taken to help support the mission work our church body is conducting. This offering is used solely for support of mission efforts to teach and spread the truth of God’s Word at home and abroad. Our congregation will be participating in that effort by collecting a door offering the weekend of June 8-9. Please prayerfully consider how you might be able to contribute to support the mission of our synod through this offering. If you write a check for the National Offering, please make it payable to The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. For more details, please see the Clarion.
