The Sacrament of Holy Communion is celebrated in our worship services this weekend. It is our practice to serve Holy Communion to those who have been instructed in the Christian faith, who are able and willing to “examine themselves,” and who share a common faith and confession. As a congregation of the LC-MS, we welcome to the Lord’s Table all who are in fellowship with our church body. If you are visiting and have questions about your participation in the Sacrament, please speak with the Elder or Pastor before the service. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request prior to worship. Please speak with the Elder or Pastor if you desire a gluten-free wafer.

Invocation, Confession &amp; Absolution of Sins		LSB 151
Introit		from Psalm 104

- Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful,
- and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia.
- O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all;
- the earth is full of your creatures.
- These all look to you,
- to give them their food in due season.
- When you give it to them, they gather it up;
- when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.
- When you send forth your Spirit, they are created,
- and you renew the face of the ground.
- Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
- Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful,
- and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia.

Old Testament Reading		Genesis 11:1–9

<sup>1</sup>Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. <sup>2</sup>And as people migrated from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. <sup>3</sup>And they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.” And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. <sup>4</sup>Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be dispersed over the face of the whole earth.” <sup>5</sup>And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of man had built. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said, “Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. And nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. <sup>7</sup>Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they may not understand one another’s speech.” <sup>8</sup>So the LORD dispersed them from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. <sup>9</sup>Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth. And from there the LORD dispersed them over the face of all the earth.

Second Reading

Acts 2:1–21

<sup>1</sup>When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup>And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. <sup>4</sup>And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

<sup>5</sup>Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. <sup>6</sup>And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. <sup>7</sup>And they were amazed and astonished, saying, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?” <sup>8</sup>And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? <sup>9</sup>Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, <sup>11</sup>both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God.” <sup>12</sup>And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” <sup>13</sup>But others mocking said, “They are filled with new wine.”

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. <sup>15</sup>For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. <sup>16</sup>But this is what was uttered through the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup>“And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; <sup>18</sup>even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup>And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; <sup>20</sup>the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day. <sup>21</sup>And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

him. <sup>24</sup>Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me.
<sup>25</sup>“These things I have spoken to you while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup>But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. <sup>27</sup>Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. <sup>28</sup>You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I will come to you.’ If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup>And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe. <sup>30</sup>I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me, <sup>31</sup>but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here.

Bible Study Note. We daily engage in a battle of wills—our will against God's. As we continue “Teach Us to Pray,” our study of the Lord's Prayer, in the Sunday morning Bible study, this week we study the petition, “Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.” We will explore what God desires of us, as well as why it is so important to pray this petition. Join us in the Chamber Room from 10:15-11:15.

Door Offering to Help the LCMS Spread “Joy to the World.” Following services this weekend, we are collecting a door offering for the National Offering which will be presented at the synodical convention this summer.

Please prayerfully consider how you might be able to contribute to support the mission of our synod through this offering. If you write a check for the National Offering, please make it payable to The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

For more details, please see the June Clarion.

A heartfelt thank you for the cake last weekend, as well as for all the well wishes and cards in celebration of my 50th birthday! I was greatly surprised, and it is deeply appreciated. In Christ, Pastor Ogilvie

Vacation Bible School Closing Program! The entire congregation is invited for the closing program on Friday, June 14, at 6:30 p.m. Let the children share their joy and what they've learned about how Jesus saves the world!

Mission Project for our VBS Miraculous Mission will be filling shoe boxes for Teachers! We will collect the following items to place in shoeboxes and give them to teachers. We will set a goal the first night of VBS and see if we can reach it. We will be collecting the following items: Pens (Blue, black, or red), pencils, highlighters, erasers, colored pencils, markers, index cards, pocket folders, sticky notes, stickers, disinfecting wipes, and facial tissue. There will be a table in the fellowship hall for congregational donations as well. Thanks for your support on our Teacher Shoebox Mission.

Quilting Schedule Change. Due to Vacation Bible School being in full swing this week, the June quilting date has been rescheduled for Monday, June 17. Anyone who would like to help in this effort—no matter how much or little experience you have—is encouraged to join us. We will start at 9:00 a.m.

Altar Flowers are needed for the following dates: July 6/7, 13/14, August 3/4, 10/11, 17/18, 24/25, 31/Sept. 1, 14/15, & 21/22.
