January 2023

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The winter months are upon us. At the moment this is being written, there are a few snowflakes in the air. We will wait to see what the Lord has in store for us in terms of snow this year. I will admit, with each year of age, I do tend to enjoy the winter season less. However, I do enjoy the beauty of a blanket of a freshly fallen snow. The brilliant white, the purity of appearance as the dormant and dead-appearing nature around us is covered with that layer of dazzle is a beautiful sight to behold.

This can be a wonderful image of our lives in Christ, as well. In fact, in the opening chapter of Isaiah, we are presented with that image. “Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool” (Isaiah 1:18, ESV). The purity of the freshly fallen snow can serve as a wonderful reminder of the purity Jesus brings to us. The scarlet—the blood red of death—of our sin is blanketed by the purity of Christ put upon us. Or to look at it another way, the scarlet of Jesus’ blood shed upon the cross is the means of our sin being taken away so that all remains for us is the perfect righteousness and purity of Christ given us to wear.

While winter can often bring with it doldrums, we can find solace and even joy in these reminders of God’s love and grace that are ours in Jesus Christ!

In Christ,

Pastor Ogilvie

Church Council Meets January 3

To prepare for the upcoming Voters’ meeting, the Church Council of our congregation will meet on Tuesday, January 3rd at 6:00 p.m. All board and committee chairs are asked to be present for this meeting. Input from all entities of the congregation is sought. We will be setting the agenda for the Voters’ meeting, so come prepared to add items. Board and committee reports are also due at this time.

ATTENTION VOTING MEMBERS – It’s Meeting Time!

The quarterly meeting of the St. Paul Voters’ Assembly will meet on Sunday, January 15, and all voting members of the congregation are strongly encouraged to be present. You are a voting member if you are a confirmed member of the congregation at least 18 years of age. The meeting will be held in the Fellowship Hall beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Packets of reports will be available for you to pick up beginning January 8. If you are able to do so, please pick up a packet and read through it prior to the meeting to save time of having to read through the reports at the meeting. Agenda items for this meeting includes the approval of the LIS 2023-2024 budget, as well as the approval of our 2023 congregational budget.

Come and be involved in the discussions of and decisions about what is happening in our congregation.

“Blessed for Life” on Life Sunday

The weekend of January 21 and 22, we will observe Life Sunday. In the past year, the U.S. Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade, but our culture still needs to hear the message of the sanctity of human life. Using the theme developed by Lutherans for Life—“Blessed for Life”—we will focus on how we are blessed with the gift of life, blessed by God for our entire lives, and blessed to be a blessing to others.

Congregational Officers to Be Installed

At the October 2022 Voters' meeting, our congregation elected officers whose term begins this month. We are grateful to those who have consented to serve the Lord and our congregation in these roles. During the service on Sunday, January 22, we will have the installation of our elected congregational officers. All newly elected and continuing officers of the congregation are asked to be present for this service, during which they will be asked to come forward to the altar for the rite of installation. This year's officers are: Congregational Church Chairman—Richard Uhlmann, Vice Chairman—Matt Schaefer, Congregational Church Secretary—Karen Wichmann, Treasurer—Helen Kozishek, Cemetery Overseers—Rodger Bohrn, Bowen Yoder, Mark Imhoff; Christian Service Chairman??, Circuit Forum delegate—Mellissa Zuber; Elders—Mike Dellamuth, Russell Furler, Lyle Grimm, Michael Jepson, Brett Kozishek, Michael Ramsey, Allan Schlesselman, Bill Sitas, Evan Uhlmann; Endowment Funds—Laurinda Kraft, Richard Schaefer, Mellissa Zuber; Evangelism—Lois Bair, Financial Review—Darrell Campbell, Karin Malloy, Peggy Wardenburg; Historical Preservation Committee (Archives)—Pat Dellamuth, Loretta Glandorf, Peggy S Grimm, LIS Board of Directors — Aaron Loy, Nicholas Timm, Eric Wardenburg; Parish Education—Margaret Wardenburg, Stewardship board—Kelsi Cox, Brianna Dellamuth, Megan Finnegan, Kasey Grainger, Theresa Glandorf, Ellyn Kozishek, Amanda Kruse, Rachel Krueger, Michele Piersol, Jolene Schaefer, Leon Snyder, Gary Stourac, Erica Wardenburg, Peggy Wardenburg, Rhonett Wardenburg

Your Past Does Not Define Your Future

New Year's is a celebration of the past and the future. We take stock of the past with thanksgiving and sometimes even relief (that it's over), and we look to the future in hope and anticipation, and perhaps with some worry, for what it holds.

The point is that New Year's celebrations remind us of who we are as opposed to who we would like to be, what we have done in comparison to what we want to do. It reminds us of our accomplishments, but mostly it reminds us of our failures. What we've lost. Who we've lost.

New Year's is our own version of Charles Dickens' classic, A Christmas Carol. And we all play Scrooge. We are visited by the ghosts of our pasts, presents and futures.

St. Paul writes: "The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, 'He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.' He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for all your generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God" (2 Cor. 9:6–15).

St. Paul tells us that the Lord will both supply and increase what we need to give to the church for its work in the world. He tells us that this work God does in us will enrich and bless us in every way, and through this, will produce thanksgiving to God. With this in mind, here is some practical advice to help you take stock of your giving in years past and change what needs to be adjusted, improved, or done away with altogether.

First, attend the Divine Service to receive God's gifts of forgiveness, life and salvation. If you've not been faithful in attending worship to hear the preaching of God's Word, to receive forgiveness and feast on the rich food of our Lord's body and blood for the eternal benefit of your body and soul, then repent and come to receive the gifts God freely gives. God doesn't want your money. He wants you — all of you (Matt. 22:20–22).

Second, pray for the Lord's help. Your right as a Christian is to speak with your Father, the King of all creation, freely through His Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ. Go to the throne of grace and ask for strength and wisdom to follow His bidding faithfully (John 15:1–16).

Third, consider what the church is and what the church does. The church is a place of mercy. It inhales the mercy of the Father by the death, resurrection and ascension of His Son through the preaching of the Gospel and the Sacraments. It exhales this mercy in love toward neighbors. You are a member of the church, of God's family. Thus, you are not only a recipient of God's mercy, but a bearer of that mercy for the life of the world. You spread that mercy through the generous giving of your income to support the work of the church in the world, as the Israelites did in the Old Testament (Lev. 27:1–34).

Fourth, take stock of your current giving in light of the New Testament's teaching on supporting the work of the church. Are you giving of your first fruits, taking it out of your paycheck first, or does God get what's left over? Are you giving voluntarily and cheerfully? Are you giving proportionally and generously? The Old Testament required a tithe, or ten percent. The New Testament gives freedom to be generous, to give more for the Church's work. Are you relying on God's promise to provide and increase what you need to do His work? If your answer is no to any of these, repent. If God gave you His only Son, will He not provide for you all things, even physical things? Trust Him, His Word, and heed it.

So, don't let your past define your future. Rather, commit for the year a generous proportion of your income, which is God's gift to you for this body and life.

What We Believe—Items from the Lutheran Confessions

In this and subsequent issues of this newsletter, we will include articles from the Lutheran Confessions, the collection of writings that set forth what we believe, teach, and confess in the Lutheran Church. These are set forth for you for reflection and meditation, to strengthen you in your understanding of what unites us in faith.

From the Augsburg Confession

Article 3. Of the Son of God

¹ Also they teach that the Word, that is, the Son of God, did assume the human nature in ² the womb of the blessed Virgin Mary, so that there are two natures, the divine and the human, inseparably enjoined in one Person, one Christ, true God and true man, who was born of the Virgin Mary, truly suffered, was crucified, dead, and ³ buried, that He might reconcile the Father unto us, and be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for all actual sins of men.

⁴ He also descended into hell, and truly rose again the third day; afterward He ascended into heaven that He might sit on the right hand of the Father, and forever reign and have dominion over all creatures, and sanctify ⁵ them that believe in Him, by sending the Holy Ghost into their hearts, to rule, comfort, and quicken them, and to defend them against the devil and the power of sin.

⁶ The same Christ shall openly come again to judge the quick and the dead, etc., according to the Apostles' Creed.

Article 4. Of Justification.

¹ Also they teach that men cannot be justified before God by their own strength, merits, or works, but are freely justified for ² Christ's sake, through faith, when they believe that they are received into favor, and that their sins are forgiven for Christ's sake, who, by His death, has made satisfaction for our sins. ³ This faith God imputes for righteousness in His sight. Rom. 3 and 4.

A Note of Thanks. A heartfelt thank you to all for the cards, greetings, gifts, and well wishes extended to our family over the Christmas season. It warms our hearts to receive these expressions of Christian fellowship. It is a blessing to be serving among you all at St. Paul. Blessings to all in the name of Jesus!

In Christ,

Pastor and Becky Ogilvie and family

Thank you I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who donated food for our funeral lunches. And, a big thank you to all who have helped serve those luncheons. It is greatly appreciated by me and the families who have lost their loved ones. In the future if you would like to donate food for any funeral luncheon, please contact me, 319-461-0396. If you are unable to bring a food item, you can always give a monetary gift and food items will be purchased. Or, you may buy something from the grocery store and we will get it picked up for you.

Also, a heartfelt thank you to all the families who have donated money in memory of their loved ones this past year. With these funds we have purchased several new needed items for the church kitchen— a stainless steel serving cart, mop bucket, handle and replacement head and some forks which seem to have been depleted, 4 fatigue floor mats. We will continue to monitor kitchen needs in the future. Once again, thank you! God's blessings!

School Budget
Sent to Voters

The Board of Directors has approved a tentative budget for the 2023-2024 school year which will be presented at the January Voter's Assembly as required by the LIS Constitution and By-Laws. The finance committee and board recognize the sacrifice that LIS parents and our congregations make in supporting LIS and are grateful for their many contributions! I praise God for our dedicated Board of Director members who volunteer many hours struggling with the challenges of running a Lutheran School and prayerfully considering what is best for the future of LIS. Without their leadership and the support of so many faithful individuals, our mission to provide a quality Christian education to students would not be possible!

December sales were over the top!
Thank you for your continued support

LIVE STREAMING COMES TO LIS

We tried our first attempt to live stream basketball games on December 12, 2022 through YouTube. Clicking on the link below you will be able to see the available streams. If it does not work, go to YouTube and search for LISLive Stream.

www.youtube.com/@lislivevideo1383

I would encourage you to subscribe to the channel. You should get a notification whenever we go live for something. It is our goal to stream our home games and a few other events throughout the year. This will not be like watching games on TV. Most of the time it will be a very wide angle of the gym. I don't expect much in the way of sound.

If you are able to view the games, I would like some feedback. I am looking for comments on video quality, sound quality and what you are able to see. Please note that what you see depends on what we are able to put out but also what your equipment and provider are capable of.

Thank you for your patience as we venture into this new adventure. Go Panthers! Mr. Sitas
